After publication of the article entitled "Assessing Best Locations for Mini-Implants in the Mandibular Symphysis Based on Different Mandibular Growth Patterns: A CBCT Study" in Turkish Journal of Orthodontics, an authorship correction was requested regarding the author list, author order, and author contribution statement.

Following editorial evaluation and written approval from all authors, Dr. Aniket Hedao has been added to the author list as the first author. Accordingly, the author order and author contribution statement have been updated.

All authors have provided written approval for this correction. The online version of the article, including the PDF, HTML, and metadata records, has been updated accordingly.
